

BIG DYNAMITE DISCOVERY MADE BY DONORA OFFICERS

Explosive Secreted in Small House Outside Borough Limits

OWNERS WERE TAKEN TO JAIL

Charles Petko and Mike Zelinski, both of Donora, were taken to the Washington county jail this morning by Constable Titus of that borough, in default of $2,000 bail, after a hearing before Justice Grover W. Boyd. It is claimed that these men engaged in dynamite plots which have taken place recently in that borough, and the authorities claim to have sufficient evidence to convict them when the case comes up for trial in the Washington county criminal courts.

The two men were arrested through the instrumentality of David Mosely and John Cree, who overheard a conversation between Petko and Zelinski which took place in Labor Union hall in Donora. Petko claimed to have a box of dynamite in a little house near S. Donora's cemetery, back of Donora and that it was there for use.

Mosely and Cree, after hearing the confession, decided to make an investigation, went to the place described and found 31 sticks of dynamite. That same night the home of Sam Serock was dynamited. Officers being informed of what had been learned went to the home of Zelinski and found him taking off his shoes getting ready for bed. He was arrested, along with Petko and both men placed in the lockup to await a hearing.

It was further ascertained that Petko was alleged to have told some of his companions that "we started this strike, and we are going to kill some one before it is ended."

Borough officials as well as members of the State Police are making a thorough investigation of the arrest of the two men, and their activities since the strike began, and believe they will be able to secure evidence of the most damaging character.

FOREIGN VETERANS TO HOLD INITIAL DANCE

Raymond Craft Post, No. 256, Veterans of Foreign Wars, with headquarters at Lock Four, has arranged for their initial dance, which will be held Tuesday evening, December 2nd, at Night's auditorium. Invitations for the affair are now being sent out, and the committee in charge expects to have a very delightful affair. The local Post is growing in numbers and at the last meeting initiated eight new candidates. Plans are now being made for launching a membership campaign, by which the membership will be largely increased. The next meeting of the Post is scheduled for Monday evening, November 24, at the borough building, Lock Four.

MAY CHANGE AGE LIMIT FOR RETIRING

Reports are current that the Pennsylvania system is contemplating important changes in the company's rules for retiring veteran employees from active service. Officially there is no confirmation. Among employees, however, the matter is widely discussed, especially on the Lines West. The age at which employees are now retired is 70 years. It is reported that, under new rules, employees reaching 65 years of age will be retired, under the pension system of the company, and their names carried on the company's "honor roll."

LOCAL FIRM BUYS STORE IN DONORA

The firm of Claybaugh & Milliken, which already owns shoe stores in Brownsville and Charleroi, on Monday completed a deal whereby they secured the Robert Coulson store in Donora and at once took possession. The new store will be managed by George B. Kirk, at present postmaster at South Brownsville, but which position he has resigned to enter the active pursuits. Mr. Kirk is an experienced shoe man and was employed in the Claybaugh & Milliken store in Brownsville before being appointed postmaster at South Brownsville. The Donora store has a good location on McKean avenue and "Bob" Coulson, the former well known National League baseball player, who has owned the business for a number of years, had built up a splendid trade.

LIQUOR OBTAINED FROM BURGLAR-PROOF VAULT

District Attorney N. A. Cort of Westmoreland county, and his staff are at a loss to figure out how whiskey, wines and other grades of "booze" secured in "speakeasy" raids disappear from the court house at Greensburg. The liquor was kept in a sub-cellar supposed to have been burglar proof. A sample of liquor obtained in each raid is kept in the district attorney's office, while the remainder is stored in the cellar. That sent to the cellar has been found missing.

SATURDAY WILL BE DONATION DAY

Saturday, November 22, will be Donation Day for the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, which will be in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary. On that day the people of Charleroi and vicinity are requested to make donations to the local institution, in the way of linens, bedding and other materials of like character, as well as of fruits and jellies, which are an essential in hospital work. All donations are to be left at the new municipal building, where a committee will be prepared to receive them. School children are taking part in the movement, and beginning with Wednesday and continuing until Friday evening will be active in the work in the way of looking after donations. A generous contribution is hoped for.

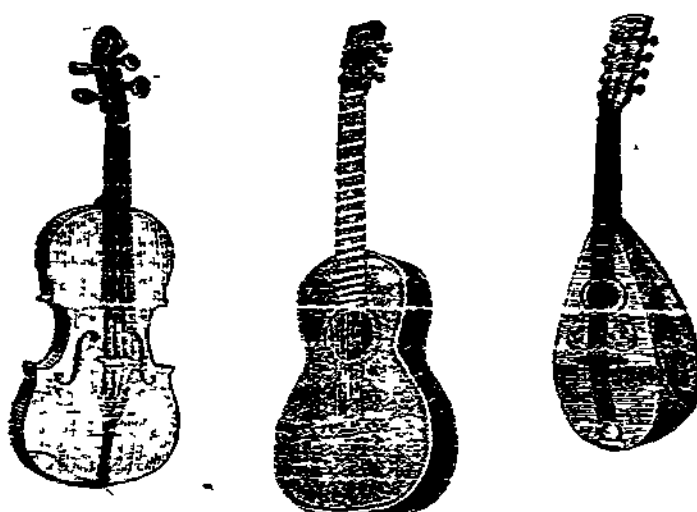

NUMBER OF FARMS SHOW A DECREASE

The State Agricultural Department has issued a bulletin which shows that Pennsylvania has 12,373,519 acres of improved farm land, and 16,018,961 being either five counties of eastern Pennsylvania, wooded or unproductive. It is also stated that if the decline in number of farms noted between the census taking of 1900 and 1910 keeps up, the next census will show about 214,000 farms in the State. An appeal is to be made to farmers to make more of the land productive, by raising of live stock.

GLENER CLASS ENTERTAINS MOTHERS

ATTEMPT MADE TO DESTROY BRIDGE ON TEN MILE BRANCH

KEPT MONEY IN SHOE BOX; BOTH ARE GONE

Mike Sovanovitch, who lives at Elrama, had his faith in a shoe box as a safe place to deposit money, rudely shaken on Tuesday. Mike had $4,000 placed in this shoe box, which was kept in a trunk. Tuesday the trunk was gone. He found it along the road about a mile from his boarding house. Everything was intact except the shoe box and the $4,000. Mike notified the state police of the robbery and two men were arrested later in Pittsburgh in connection with the robbery.

NEWSPAPER MEN DISCUSS SITUATION

An important meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Associated Daily Presses is being held in Pittsburgh today at which time advertising and subscription rates will be given serious consideration. The acute shortage of print paper, which is becoming more serious every day, will be the chief topic of discussion, together with ways and means of conserving the supply. Members of the Association from practically every county in Western Pennsylvania will be present. This evening members of the Association will be guests of honor at a dinner to be given by the Pittsburgh Press Club in the Nixon building.

CONFER ON NEW DOCK FOR MONESSEN

Col. W. B. Ferguson, district engineer, presided Wednesday at a meeting held at his offices in Pittsburgh in which the proposed coal and coke unloading docks for the Pittsburgh Steel company at Monessen were discussed. The company intends to ship coke from its ovens at the Alicia mine, a short distance above Brownsville, by river, as there is a considerable loss of time and material in receiving the material side from the damage done through rail shipping, as well as high transportation charges. According to the present plans the docks, which are to be 800 feet long, will be built a considerable distance from shore, as the shore foundations are not adaptable on account of quicksand. Members of the firm of the Coal Exchange and the government took part in the conference.

Heavy Explosion Does Damage to Bridge Near Millsboro

TRAFFIC WAS NOT INTERRUPTED

An attempt was made to wreck a railroad bridge on the Ten Mile branch of the Monongahela division, Pennsylvania Railroad, about 12 o'clock Tuesday night. The structure injured spans what is known as Black Dog Hollow, about midway between Millsboro and Besco. The structure was damaged somewhat but not sufficiently to prevent traffic.

The attempt to destroy the bridge is attributed to enemies of the government with Bolshevik tendencies. Two men are under suspicion by officers who are now at work trying to unravel the mystery which surrounds the attempt at destruction. These men have been questioned closely but have been unable to give a satisfactory account of themselves.

The explosion let go with a terrific roar and was heard for miles around. Houses were shaken, and people all through that section of the valley, were running about inquiring as to what had happened.

Just what explosive was used has not been determined. An unusually heavy charge was placed and that the bridge was not shattered was due to the fact that whoever placed it was evidently an amateur in the use of explosives. A large quantity of powder, such as is used by miners, is known to have been purchased from a storehouse in the community recently and it is believed it was used in the explosion.

The bridge is a new structure having been completed last summer, and is constructed of steel and concrete. The concrete was badly shattered by the explosion, but the framework and reinforcements were not damaged.

A number of non-union miners are located along Ten Mile creek, and have been operating steadily during the strike of the organized miners. About 60 car loads of coal are being produced daily by these workings. They are the Champion Gas Coal company at Besco; the Pitt Gas Coal company and the Clarksville Gas Coal company near Clarksville, and the Mathers Coal company near Jefferson, Greene county.

Traffic on the branch will not be interrupted, but a rigid investigation will be made in the hope of ascertaining who was responsible for the explosion.

Air Mail Delivered at Sea.

The first aerial mail delivery to a ship at sea was accomplished August 14, 1919, when an airplane flying boat dropped a sack of European mail on the deck of the White Star liner "Adriatic" leaving New York. The experience was an official test undertaken at the request of the post office department and may be put into general operation. The flying boat overtook the "Adriatic" just as she was passing out of the Atlantic channel. After circling around the liner a few times the pilot, C. J. Zimmerman, came down to within 50 feet of the ship's mast and dropped the mail bag. Some 200 passengers crowded the promenade deck of the liner and watched the experiment. The officers echoed down the bag as the plane was successfully halted above--N.Y. Herald's Weekly.

Pins and Needles.

After being for a long time in a constrained attitude of peculiar numbness and stiffness is often felt in the arm, the leg or the foot. This is caused by some interference to the circulation of the blood and can usually be removed by rubbing or exercise. The reason for this sensation, which is decidedly uncomfortable, is that pressure for a certain length of time impairs the sensibility of a nerve. When this pressure is suddenly removed (as in stretching out the leg after sitting with it doubled underneath the body) sensibility gradually returns to the nerve and as each nerve fiber composing the trunk regains its normal condition of sensibility a prickling sensation is felt, and these successive pricklings from the successive awakenings of the numerous fibers have not inaptly been called "pins and needles."

She was a sweet, young bride, who had already found that what looks like a nice piece of meat in the shop often seems to have gone through a private transformation when it arrives home. "How is it?" she inquired eagerly, when an old married friend called upon her, "that you always manage to have such delicious beef?" "It's very simple," replied the elder woman. "I first select a good honest butcher, and then I stand by him." "Oh, I see, you give him all your trade, you mean?" said the innocent young bride. "No," answered her companion, grimly. "I stand by him while he is cutting the meat!"

Open Hearts Keep Young.

The mind acts upon the body, and keeps it young. Those who grumble at everything, who nurse resentments, and who let their troubles sour them, look, and actually grow, old, sooner than the contented and kindly. It is a very beautiful thing to see those who have met many storms in life, but who have turned their troubles into sympathy and kept an open heart for all about them. And even when the hair turns grey, and the first youth passes, they possess that boon to themselves and those whose life touches theirs--a young mind.

STATE REVENUES ARE INCREASING

Revenue of Pennsylvania is going to pass the high water mark of $44,500,000 made in the fiscal year of 1918 in the opinion of men connected with the Auditor General's department. The fiscal year ends with November and the revenue already in hand is within a few hundred thousand of the total for the whole of the last fiscal period. Large payments have been made to the State hunters' license, fire insurance and school funds which receive moneys from certain sources and considerable investments are about to be made of the cash, most of them being put into the State's own roads bonds.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Mrs. Rose Scotch of California, indicted for the murder of her husband Vero Scotch, was cleared by a jury in the Washington county court on Wednesday. The commonwealth had presented its case, but it had absolutely no testimony to show that the woman had committed the deed. The defense put in no testimony, and the court instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty.

Members of the local police force are in Washington today attending court as witnesses in the Buckholz homicide case, and in which August Kerner and James McMorrell are the defendants.

Birthdays Regulate Unions.

There is no love making as we know it in a Burmese courtship, no kissing and holding of hands and embracing. This would be most shocking to the modest instincts of the Burmese maiden. Yet love has in Burma, as in all the rest of the world, its own signs. Finally the father's and mother's consent is asked, the dowry fixed and the astrologer consulted, who will tell them whether a boy born on Monday and a girl on Wednesday may wed. No matter how ardently a match is desired by the interested parties some unions, judged according to birthdays, would be most unlucky. As each day of the week is guarded by an animal, it naturally follows that a man born on a day ruled by a serpent and a woman of a day ruled by a mongoose, the serpent's deadly enemy, could not possibly live happily together.--Elizabeth Cooper, in Asia Magazine.

"Sent to Coventry."

To shut a person out of the society to which he belongs, to banish him by refusing to associate with him, to ignore him entirely, called "sending to Coventry." is a phrase upon the origin of which those who are fond of digging into antique customs do not agree. One explanation is that in times gone by Coventry was so opposed to having soldiers quartered within its gates its authorities, with a view to keeping them at a distance, refused to allow the women to speak to those gay defenders of the land. Another view is that during the war between parliament and the royalists certain rebellious men were sent to that city for safe keeping, thus creating unpleasant memories of the place.--London Mail.

Area of Cyprus.

The area of Cyprus is about equal to that of Delaware and Rhode Island. While its total population is about half of the latter state, Greek of almost classic purity is spoken. The people follow agricultural pursuits, along primitive lines, and until recently the famed Cyprian wine had its flavor affected unpleasantly by the use of tarred skins as carriers. Among the other products are grains, vetches and carobs, the locust beans, which John the Baptist is supposed to have eaten while in the wilderness. Marble is quarried, asbestos is found, salt is produced, and there are sponge fisheries, but the copper, from which the island derived its name, has been exhausted.--National Geographic Magazine.

Knew Something About Mothers.

Ralph went to visit a neighbor's little boy. While there another boy came to play also; but he was something of a bully and Ralph did not like him. When he reached home he told his mother some of the mean things the boy had said and done. "He was so disagreeable I am sure nobody could like him," he said. Then after a moment's meditation he looked up into her face and added: "I suppose, though, his mother loves him, no matter how bad he is."

"Peter's Pence."

Peter's Pence or Peter's pence was the annual contribution for the support of the papacy. It consisted of the payment of a silver penny by every family that possessed land or cattle whose value was 30 pence. In England this payment was abolished under Henry VIII, and in other countries did not survive the Reformation.

CAMBRIA MILLS ARE AGAIN OPERATING

Reports from Johnstown say that with more than 10,000 men registered for duty and a large percentage of that number already at work, the Cambria Steel works is operating under the disadvantageous conditions which follow every shutdown of several weeks. Approximately 1,000 additional men signed up for jobs on Tuesday. Strike pickets have ceased their operation. Two blast furnaces are in operation and preparations are under way to operate a third before the end of the week. All other departments of the big mill are being placed in operation just as fast as it is possible to get them ready.

New Lubricating Idea.

The bearings of the earliest automobiles were lubricated by squirting oil through the old-fashioned oil holes. That system soon gave way to oil cups, and now most cars are fitted with screw-down grease cups. But, it seems, a couple of years ago there was invented and patented in Great Britain a device that may supersede grease cups on automobiles and probably also on other machinery. It is an adaptation of the well-known collapsible lead tubes, so widely used for artists' colors and for medicated and toilet pastes, etc. The capsules have a screw thread that fits an adapter, which is fastened to the part to be lubricated. The lead capsule and the brass adapter make tight joint, and all that is necessary is to apply pressure from time to time, as desired. When the lead capsule is empty it can be unscrewed and a new one put in its place.
